Great Expectations is the thirteenth novel by Charles Dickens and his penultimate completed novel: a bildungsroman that depicts the personal growth and personal development of an orphan nicknamed Pip. Steve Cohen made his name as an exclusive act for society's elite. He has been featured on the Late Show With David Letterman and in Variety and Forbes, and for nearly two decades held a residency at the Waldorf Astoria New York. The Catcher in the Rye is a story by J. D. Salinger, partially published in serial form in 1945–1946 and as a novel in 1951. It was originally published for adults but has become popular among adolescent readers for its themes of angst and alienation, and as a critique on superficiality in society.
