The literal meaning of les misérables is "the miserable ones." The characters are french and the book is centered around their lives. The time period is the early 1800's. In Les Miserables, which character's story touches you the most and why? What was the dead body in the middle of Les Miserables about? I don't remember the page but it was on its face and its arms were crossed. Les Misérables (French pronunciation: [le mizeʁabl(ʔ)]) is a French historical novel by Victor Hugo, first published in 1862, that is considered one of the greatest novels of the 19th century. In the English-speaking world, the novel is usually referred to by its original French title. Question: What parts of Les Miserables are a true story? Like others have said, the June Rebellion is real, the preemptive parts (previous revolutions and what not) are real, there's a POSSIBILITY that the story about Valjean (someone serving upwa...
