

Download Mercer University Clinical Mental Health Counseling

Mercer has launched second and third medical school campuses (in Savannah and Columbus), started a master's-level physician assistant program and a doctoral-level program in physical therapy, and added doctoral programs in clinical psychology, nursing, counseling, educational leadership, and curriculum and instruction. Georgia Baptist College of Nursing. Janda Anderson Director of Admissions (works with all populations, but greater emphasis on licensed nursing professionals and grad programs) Join us to learn how Mercer University's evening, weekend, and online degree programs can help you reach your educational goals! Mercer's programs are designed for working adult students, making it possible for you to manage the important things in life while pursuing a degree in any one of our industry-focused programs. Admission resources & materials to start the application process. Earn a degree & advance your career at Mercer University.